As the mother of a gay son, Kawema is uniquely connected to the Osani Circle in a very personal and experiential way. She can personally relate to the unique concerns that people of color are trying to navigate when their child identifies as Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and/or Transgender and is focused on helping families make the journey from uncertainty to a place of love and acceptance.

Kawema has over 30 years of experience serving Nashville families – specializing in family engagement, trauma informed care and support facilitation.
